

Community “Chip Chat” Nights at Hutson

Hosted by: The Hutson School

7245 East 75th Street * Indianapolis, IN * 46250 * 317- 377-0544

“Chip Chats” are FREE monthly presentations open to ALL parents, family, friends, and educators of students with learning differences. Made possible through a grant from The Hoover Family Foundation, The Hutson School is honored to host these Free public events throughout the school year.

“Chip Chats” feature speaker Chip Calwell, Licensed Family Therapist and part-time educator at The Hutson School, and guests speaking on a wide variety of Topics affecting families and students with learning differences.

Mark your calendar now to attend these outstanding FREE community education nights!

Dates	Topic	Time
Mon., September 19 th	“I’m Just a Mom – of an LD Child”	7:00pm – 8:00pm
Mon., October 3 rd	“Adolescent Behaviors of the LD student”	7:00pm – 8:00pm
Thurs., October 20 th	“Treating the Whole Child”	7:00pm – 8:00pm
Mon. Dec. 5 th	“Holiday Stress & The Family”	7:00pm – 8:00pm
Mon., February 13 th	“Coping Strategies”	7:00pm – 8:00pm
Wed., March 7 th	Movie Night Featuring “Ennis’ Gift”- a Film About Learning Differences. - made in part By Dr. and Mrs. Bill Cosby	7:00pm - 8:30pm
Mon., April 16 th	“Just Ask Chip” Open Q & A night topical to Students with learning differences	7:00pm – 8:00pm

For more information on “Chip Chats” visit www.hutsonschool.org

Topics may be subject to change.

